Mobile Outreach Response Engagement & Stabilization

For information or to refer, call 980-494-1175.

Mobile Outreach Response Engagement and Stabilization (MORES) is a specialized crisis response service. It's designed to engage youth and their families to address immediate crisis and to assist in connecting them to community resources and providers.

You can call on our MORES teams 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. We also offer face-to-face response Monday through Friday from noon to 9 pm.

Individualized treatment plans are created by a multidisciplinary team. We believe in advocating for our clients, and services include:

- Stabilization
- Trauma-informed treatment strategies
- Best practice clinical approaches and family-centered care
- Aftercare and discharge planning
- Connection to specialized services
- Home- and community- coordinated partnerships
- Utilization and coordination of benefits

✦ Who is MORES for?

MORES is designed for a range of developmental age groups ranging from 4 to 20 years of age.

✦ Why call MORES?

MORES can reduce hospitalizations and out of home placements for children and adolescents.

✦ Who can refer?

In addition to families, we accept referrals from stakeholders such as DSS, DJJ, hospitals, schools, and law enforcement.

ABOUT CAROLINA OUTREACH

With seven sites across North Carolina, the experienced staff at Carolina Outreach have been serving children, families, and adults with mental health and substance use issues since 2004. We focus on helping our clients tap into and develop their inherent strengths with the goal of supporting the highest quality of life possible for all we serve.
